THE RELEASE OF THE COOPER MATERIAL

There are many hazards involved with exposing information regarding UFOs. It has not been until quite recently that any degree of safety at all has been available for people releasing such information. Were it not for the fact that Cooper released his information so far and wide and it filtered to so many people at once -- newspapers, legislators, heads of state, people in important positions all over the world -- he would have suffered severely. But because it was scattered so quickly, it would have been fruitless to silence him after the information had been released. It would only have added to the credibility of the information.

At the beginning of 1990, there was still an active debate in certain circles about what to do about Cooper -- whether to deal with him in a threatening manner or to simply discredit him. A campaign planned to use approximately one million dollars worth of effort to discredit him. The money was to be used to imply that Cooper made up or gathered information from various sources and threw it together for a personal financial motive. It was not to come through normal media channels, but through UFO magazines and newsletters in the form of articles and exposes and through UFO groups, most of which are controlled.

Alternate UFO scenarios were also to be released so that by the time 1990 ended, many different scenarios would be floating around. People would be unable to decipher which one was true and which one wasn't.

As long as interest was shown in the Cooper material by only a small group of people who happened to be curious about UFOs, there was to be no action taken. But if Cooper's material was taken seriously by credible people, these would be the target for the efforts to discredit him.

Enormous amounts of previously highly classified information have been brought out into the open. We now have a situation where, individuals, instead of being forced to remain silent for fear of assassination are not afraid to tell what they know. Too many have seen. Too many have witnessed. They cannot all be silenced. This is the beginning of the end of the security surrounding this situation. Therefore, the following information shall be released.

THE SPECIES CLASSIFIED

The present number of alien types having contact with the earth right now is nine, with seven being relatively permanent and five being influential.

Contrary to the information that the government might release, not all UFO inhabitants are friendly representatives from the Galactic Space Confederation.

ZETA RETICULI GREYS -- SMALL

Zeta Reticuli Greys come from Zeta Reticulan, near Barnard's Star, which is a neighboring star system to Orion. They are very short (about 3 1/2 to 4 feet tall), grayish silver in color and have no sexual or digestive parts to their bodies. They are created through a cloning process of alien genetic engineering. They are an ancient race and have reproduced themselves for thousands of years. They have very limited facial features. They have large eyes, a very small slit for a mouth and no nose to speak of. The eyes are large almond-shaped and black.

They have evolved beyond the sexual reproduction process so that all sexual organs and their digestive tracts have totally atrophied. They are no longer capable of eating or indulging in sexual activities. They are a close relative to the insect family.

The Zetas are the ones involved in the cattle mutilations. They absorb certain substances from parts of the cattle that stabilize them during the cloning process. This can be placed under the tongue to give sustenance and stability for some time. It is a substance that comes from certain mucus membranes: the lips, nose, genitals and rectum, and also from certain organs. These glandular substances serve as nutrients in lieu of eating.

Resting the substances under the tongue is not the only way they get nutrition. You may have noticed that the cattle mutilations generally result in all the blood being drained from the body. The Zetas have in their bases canisters and vats in which animal and human organs float along with a purple liquid to hold these parts in suspension. The Zetas swim in the mixture and absorb the nutrients through their skin. They use hydrogen peroxide in both the absorption and elimination process. The hydrogen peroxide also helps to preserve the liquid and organ mixture to keep it from spoiling.

They have no digestive tract and eliminate through the skin. To eliminate, they need to pass the substance through some part of their body, much the same way plants eliminate through their skin or outer shells. They use hydrogen peroxide for helping with that elimination as well.

The Zetas have also been referred to as the Little Green Men because they tend to turn a shade of green when they have not received sufficient food. When they are in this state, they are very vicious.

The cloning of these aliens can be done quite quickly, reproducing synthetic replicas. They have a technology that is much beyond that of humans and that has led to the agreements with the United States government whereby exchanges of these techniques could occur.

The Zeta Reticuli Greys are not masters of their own fate. They are, rather, subservient to a reptilian race of people from their home planet. The Zetas seek, but are fearful of, freedom from their masters. They seem to have some desire to work closely with humans in an effort to retain the freedom they have on earth, which they have never experienced before. In their desire to retain that freedom from their reptilian masters, they would hope to play the role of being masters here on earth, or at least having enough control so as to be safe from slavery by any other species.

The Zetas are of two social classes, one being hawkish, the other more dove-like. The more dove-like Zetas are more refined and capable of more business-like behavior toward humans, while the other type is more abrupt, blunt and crude in their directness. The Zetas desire the help of humans in an expected future confrontation with the reptilian masters who are expected to follow soon, within the next 20 years. This refers to the so-called asteroid that is on its way toward earth. It is housing approximately 30 million reptilian aliens. It has, however, temporarily diverted its path as it moves into the constellation of Draco.

BELLATRAX GREYS -- SHORT

The short Grey, which is shorter than the Zeta Reticuli, is from a star system near the Orion constellation, near the shoulder of the figure in a star system called Belletrax. They are shorter, much like dwarves (about 1 1/2 feet tall). They are more indirect, but just as vicious towards humans as the Zetas.

Both the Bellatrax Grays and the Zeta Reticuli Greys are related genetically from the same root race and look very much alike except for size.

ORION GRAYS -- TALL

The other type of Grey is the tall, big-nosed Grey. They have large noses and stand about 7 or 8 feet tall. They are based in the Aleutian Islands and recently were witnessed in a park in the Eastern part of Russia. These creatures are hostile, but less vicious toward humans. They tend to try to influence through the use of political controls. They have certain powers and technologies that allow them to perform actions that appear miraculous.

In the Russian incident, a woman whose leg was deformed was picked up by these Orion Greys and was released thousands of miles away. Her leg was healed. The aliens did not heal her leg. They transplanted a new leg onto her body.

The Orion Grays give the impression that they are benevolent towards humans, but they are heavily into genetic engineering. They use humans as guinea pigs to conduct various experiments. They have grown arms and legs and other body parts in a formless matrix made from human flesh. A leg may grow out of a torso, hands might grow from the middle of the torso's stomach. All this is done through the injecting of certain genomes into flesh and the application of electromagnetic charges. In this way they can grow human body parts to help deformed or injured humans -- or for their own purposes of food and sustenance. They are interested in controlling the masses of the earth through certain negotiated agreements with those in power.

ALL GREYS

The Greys are all, to some degree, influencing human history at this time. The nature of the Greys, especially the Zeta Reticuli and the short Greys, is that they do not have deep emotional feelings or compassion. They are very calculating, cold intellectuals and see humans as being inferior. They look at humans much the same way a farmer looks at his cows. They understand the passions and compassion of humans to the degree it is observable by them. But they do not have feelings.

These aliens are on the equivalent human level of cannibals. They see humans being an inferior species. They are carnivorous. The Zeta Reticuli Greys feed upon glandular secretions of humans and are quite capable of killing people for that secretion, or abducting humans and extracting the secretions for themselves.

The genetic manipulation is one way that the aliens see as evolving and saving their dying race. In a sense, humans are suddenly the saviors of the souls of the aliens. But at least it is a way that humans may have an influence on the aliens.

This is not the first time that a civilization has attempted to absorb an enemy rather than defeating it. While the enemy invader may assume that they are taking over, they are in fact being absorbed. The Tartars invaded Russia and within a hundred years were absorbed into Russian society.

PLEIADEANS

Of the five, those from the Pleiades are entities who are distant relatives of humankind. They are related to and are the forefather race of the genetic creation of humankind. They are of a higher spiritual development than most people on earth at this time. They have a kinship towards humans, and are essentially the only aliens who can to be trusted by humans. They have blonde hair and fair skin. They are allied with the Intergalactic Space Confederation. That doesn't mean that all entities of human appearance in space craft can or should be trusted, for there are humans from this planet from various governments who are working for the Zeta Reticuli Grays.

Some from the Pleiades are subordinates to the Grays, having been abducted as children or offspring of the abductees. They have been raised and trained by the Grays as servants. The humans from the Pleiades have made several earth contacts, but in recent times have suspended visitations to earth.

The government was told that this was because of a space law that states that the destiny of a people shall not be interfered with unless it threatens themselves or others in the galaxy. If the threat of nuclear war became strong enough, these entities indicated that they might interfere, but only to the degree of reducing that threat. That could also set up a conflict between the Pleiadeans and the Zeta Grays, to whom a limited nuclear war is seen as beneficial.

Since the humans have made an agreement and pact with the Zeta Greys, even though there were warnings by the Pleiadeans against this, there is now a "hands off" policy. The Pleiadeans feel that the humans have made their bed and now they must lie in it. It is not likely that humans will be rescued from planned events simply to make things easier for humans to overcome the masters they have agreed to work with.

DRACO MOTHMEN

In the constellation of Draco, there is another race of entities which has in the past visited Earth. They are 8-foot-tall, dark, nocturnal aliens who appeared around graveyards and parks. They have red eyes that glow in the dark and wings to fly. They are referred to by us as Mothmen. They are also the source of legends of the past relating to gargoyles and Valkeries. Even some qualities of vampires have been taken from the qualities of this creature -- the ability to fly and nocturnal habits.

The Mothmen have no particular influence on earth at this time other than as causing panic and a cause for curiosity. They are mostly hidden underground and do not wish to attract attention.

DEROS/TEROS

There are also underground civilizations of non-humans that have been referred to as Deros and Teros. The Teros are more friendly and help keep the Deros, who are more demented, from having excessive power. They live underground in tunnels, cities and sometimes under the sea. Most of the legends of the past of leprechauns and trolls refer to these non-humans from the inner earth. The Deros are competitors with the Greys, but they have similar qualities and cannot be trusted.

THE GOVERNMENT CONNECTION

Crisis management is a term used by the government to describe the scenario where a crisis situation is created and then the people are presented with solutions, usually three, which they would be reluctant to accept prior to the crisis. The solutions always involve the shoring up of security, which necessarily means the loss of some freedoms. When the situation has reached the crisis stage, it appears as if there is no other alternative. It appears as if the crisis just happened rather than being carefully planned.

Crisis management is a way to create the illness for which the pill has already been invented. By creating a problem in order to supply a cure that would not have been acceptable without the problem, the government is able to manipulate the people, making it look as though it is benevolent in handing the situation on behalf of the people, when in fact, it is directing the movement of the people along a specific path that has already been chosen.

The current drug crisis is a case in point, although there is a connection to alien base funding that makes it a very special scenario. A tremendous amount of information has linked the United States government with the drug trade since at least the 1960s. The Christic Institute filed suit, but was successfully neutralized.

The government information that is being released is a subtle form of convincing the public that the military must be used to do what is really the job of the local police; for the military to shoot down airplanes suspected of carrying drugs; for the military to be used in foreign countries.

The coming currency call-in is related to drug money laundering. There is a continuing call for the banning of all firearms because of their use in criminal activity, particularly drug-related crimes. The ban on assault weapons will soon be extended to every gun. A declaration of martial law, with the resulting major security upgrade to deal with the alien crisis, will be much easier when these things occur.

The drug situation started out as a social experiment back in the 1800s. There was a question of whether people could be controlled by the use of drugs and to what extent. There was at one time a belief that by getting the population hooked on drugs, they would work at a cheap wage, with only the reward of food, shelter and drugs to keep them satisfied. The experiment, however, resulted in the realization that those on drugs are not satisfied with working. They want to steal from others and are willing to become violent to do so.

The experiment also revealed that while crime increases in the United States would justify creating a national police force, the economic structure at that time was not sound enough to pay for such a police state. The entire concept became less appealing and more hazardous to the government.

The experiment ran its course, and yielded little in terms of the controlling effects that were desired. The side benefit, however, was billions of dollars in profits from the selling of drugs. The drug situation has assisted the funding of the aliens in building their underground civilization. Much of this money has gone into helping them in their efforts to establish bases underground. In exchange, the United States got technology a promise that the aliens would not go to war with the United States or other countries of the world.

The aliens gave the United States and the Soviet Union particle beam weapons, laser technology, Stealth technology, some supercomputer technology, information on cloning and synthetic genetic duplication of humans, some medical breakthroughs, and technology associated with frequencies, vibrations and the electromagnetic spectrum such as ELF waves and rail gun technology.

The techniques of interdimensional travel have still been kept secret from humans. About 15 percent of human genetic coding has been researched by universities in the United States. It has allowed them to splice, remove, delete and add to the genetic code in order to change it. It can be used for destroying or creating diseases, destroying or creating plants, animals and other life forms -- anything that may be tampered with genetically. This effort to map out and decode all of the DNA available is one of the reasons that many of the creatures on Level 6 of the Dulce Base were created or altered genetically.

There has recently been a breakthrough in the need for blood by these aliens, in that cattle blood has been altered so that it suits their needs. It is a side-effect from the experimentation that involved the cattle mutilations. Much of the blood and tissues that they need could be supplied from slaughterhouses and there would be no more mutilations.

There has been a continuing massive effort to fund the aliens through various means -- not only drugs, but manipulated oil prices and other methods -- to keep them pacified long enough to determine how best to deal with them. The choice was to co-exist with them while secretly expanding the country's technologies in order to deal with them in the event of a conflict. This has given greater time for the technology of humans to close the gap with the technology of the aliens.

It has been assessed that in recent years that the aliens have not been honoring the treaties and agreements and therefore, are not to be trusted. The effort to cut off their funding has begun, and one of the routes for cutting off funding is to shut down the drug traffic and the influx of money from the drug cartel. Noriega was one of those involved in helping set up the money chain that assisted the aliens. His arrest is a strong signal that the pipeline of money to the aliens will no longer be open.

The Colombian Cartel is also ceasing operations. The shutting down of the drug cartel is a first step in removing the power of the aliens and pulling back from the agreements. Government projections indicate that pulling support from the clandestine drug trade will curtail the United States drug problem by 1993, unless it is artificially stimulated again as a pretext to martial law. It may not be necessary however, if the release of certain information makes national security paramount.

It must be understood that there was an enormous problem for the government when it discovered that the earth was actually being held hostage to an alien influence and that there was no reasonable technology for dealing with this alien influence.

President Truman made a considerable effort to engage in combat with these aliens, but the technology of the United States at the time was not advanced enough to even begin to have an effect. Therefore, the only option -- short of total obliteration of the human race in an all-out war -- was to form agreements for building, expanding and funding these bases.

Americans may judge harshly the government for its action, but it was put in a very difficult and desperate situation in regard to national security. One choice was to inform the people. Projections were that they would become outraged, perhaps destroying the very fabric of society. Mobs were projected to demand military action against a force which the government knew would be far superior.

Projections also indicated people would demand the resignation of persons in office. They would be perceived as having been making deals with an alien enemy without the people knowing of this. Under normal circumstances and under the Constitution, that could be classed as treason.

The government has functioned in a manner it perceived to be in the best interest of humankind. Yet it has also been put in a predicament whereby it could be misjudged as having worked in collaboration with a foreign invading army. Had the government opposed the invaders, however, it would have lead to mass destruction of humanity. Even nuclear weapons had little usefulness in dealing with foreign invaders on our own soil.

The public cannot begin to understand what these people have gone through in terms of soul-searching and trying to find the best way to deal with the crisis which they were forced to manage. The option of informing the people appeared less viable and workable than to silently make negotiated deals with the aliens to keep them pacified over a period of time in an attempt to find a peaceful way of coexistence. MJ-12 and those who have been subordinate feel they have done everything possible and appropriate for the intense situation of hosting aliens with much greater technology on the earth.

It has done all it felt was proper to preserve peace and to gain information from the aliens in order to develop higher technology. It has also hidden vital information and shielded certain knowledge when necessary from the aliens in order to create weaponry that may be used against them in the event of conflict.

There is now some division and debate between those in the upper echelons as to whether they should simply inform the people of the problem or continue to keep it quiet. Until this debate swings one way or the other, it is relatively hazardous to release too much information on this. If it is decided that this information must be kept quiet, many of the sources that are releasing this information will become targets for harassment or assassination. But the scenario now reveals that unless information is released by the authorities and is accepted by the vast majority of people, most Americans will not accept the information from an individual that claims to have inner knowledge of the government's cover-up.

There was an attempt to test whether the public would panic at the thought of invasion from aliens. It was the radio broadcast of Orson Welles in 1938. The public reacted with panic and many committed suicide.

There is an effort now to condition the people to be more willing to accept an alien presence as a possibility using movies and television -- Star Wars, ET, Close Encounters of the Third Kind, Aliens, V, Alien Nation and War of the Worlds. All of these are presenting various images and scenarios to condition the human mind to be open to what may soon be reality. The government does not direct a studio to make these movies or TV shows, but scripts are submitted to certain people who are silent partners with certain agencies to encourage the script to be used and help find funding sources to keep the script alive.

The alien Nation scenario conditions the human mind to accept the presence of aliens who are relatively friendly and who can coexist with humans. War of the Worlds, which contains a scenario of humanoid replicas and aliens living underground, shows the conflict between the aliens and humans. ET allows people not to be paranoid or fearful when thinking of aliens, as they may in fact be friendly. It gave people the capacity to deal with frightening information that may otherwise cause serious insecurity.

Right now there are so many different types of aliens being offered to the human mind that people can accept or reject any or all of them. People are gradually being conditioned to the possibility of being informed officially. If that time comes, there will not be a great shock. In 1938, people did not have the preparation, and even though aliens on earth were already a reality, they were not even prepared for a fictional representation.

Only now are people being told about the plan to set up a moon base that would later lead to a Mars landing and a Mars base. There has been a moon base for quite some time, in the crater Copernicus. The United States officially controlled the base until 1969, when it was learned that the aliens were working with both the Soviets and the Americans. The Soviets gained the advantage at that time and took over the base.

But even though there are competitions here and there, much of the cold war was actually a facade in order to extract huge sums of money for other purposes. Much of it was being diverted to developing technologies that have yet to be brought out and that may be needed in the event of conflict.

The Tesla approach has for many decades been ignored by the United States. But it has been developed and used in the Soviet Union. It is now being used in the United States as a part of the Star Wars program to enhance and move further into the higher technologies.

The Star Wars technology is essentially designed to assist in dealing with the alien factor and the potential conflict. The Soviets already have laser cannons, beam weapons, certain types of shielding fields, anti-detection fields that can be used to meet with other humans and speak about plans without being monitored by the aliens.

Much of the apparent corruption of the government is actually based on this dilemma of how to deal with this alien situation. There were certain benefits derived from agreements with the aliens as indicated in the works of Cooper, especially in regards to the Trilateralists and those who were involved in direct relationships with the aliens.
But this government was not alone in dealing with the alien situation.
The aliens were also connected with the Bolsheviks in the Soviet Union and also the Nazis. Much of the technology that the Nazis were developing during the war was actually given them by the aliens, who were in part behind the Nazi rise to power and the influences associated with some of the hidden philosophies of Hitler and those of the inner group.

During the time immediately following World War II, the sightings of UFOs in various parts of the world were quite frequent, with an aura of mystery and much government scrambling to discover what the purpose of the aliens were. The government was aware of their presence and had agreements that reached back to 1933, although they were not always sure what the aliens were up to during all of this time. Later, the technology exchange between the United States and these aliens began to have its greater influence and the funding action began. It was in the 1930s that the Nazis had closer ties with the Zeta Reticuli Greys. More on that in another upload.

ALIEN BASES

There are alien bases in Brazil, Argentina, the United States, the Aleutian Islands, China, the Arctic and Antarctica, New Zealand and Australia, Canada and those that are underwater in various oceans on the earth. There have been a number of bases within the United States. Some of these were closed by secret raids of government teams that were especially established to defuse the influence and presence of these bases, particularly during the 1960s and early 1970s. These DELTA teams would go down into various caves to shut down certain computers and in the event they ran into any aliens inhabiting the caves, there would be an engagement. They were successful in some areas and failed in others.

This occurred in many more areas than just the Dulce Base. Later these teams were stopped by MJ-12 and a cooperative effort was made to work with the aliens until it was again discovered that the aliens were not honoring their agreements and were not to be trusted. Most who were involved with such teams have since died for one reason or another, often under mysterious circumstances. Many of those who were working to hinder the aliens were covertly killed, especially those who had special skills in raiding these caves.

Most caves in the United States in general are usually safe unless there are straight, carved walls and smooth floors. Those are generally artificially created entrances to an underground base. They should be avoided unless you would like to end your existence. Likewise, those who see a spacecraft would be foolish to walk up to it or approach it. Those who have been abductees do not usually report great benefits from the experience.

Generally, abductees have been used as guinea pigs for experimentation and have disappeared permanently. Many of the missing children have, in fact, been taken by aliens.

ABDUCTIONS

About one in every hundred people has been abducted by a UFO whether they know it or not. There is a blue ray which they use during the abductions that captures people and beams them up into the ship. The action of being beamed into the ship with a blue ray actually suffocates the person, causing all oxygen to be sucked from the person's cells, so that they hover near death for a moment. Upon arrival in the ship, they are revived by another ray that restores oxygen into the cells.

Many abductions are of a quite cruel nature. Humans would not want to remember what happened in some of the clinical experimentation or examinations that occurred. The aliens have a vacuum tube that follows up through the rectum and around into the intestines, sucking out fecal matter, which they examine for purposes of their own research. They are looking at the kinds of food that was eaten and examining the effects on the person's health.

They implant chips through the nose, the back of the neck and the back of the head near the right ear during times when the subject is conscious, but in a state of mental and physical paralysis. The subject is not unconscious as if they were sedated. The aliens have the ability to block the memory of the experience through the use of certain injections and drugs into specific areas of the brain.

Zeta Greys abduct humans and use them for genetic experiments. They take the souls from those humans and put them in replicas and release them after having altered them to some degree. They may appear to be the same person -- and the soul is in fact the same, the body is new-- and certain aspects of the memory and personality have been altered slightly.

The aliens create replica bodies into which souls are transplanted from one body into another. This has been portrayed on the television series War of the Worlds. This is a means by which these aliens snatch bodies and control people to make them their own.

Much of this occurs in underground caverns. When people who have disappeared for some time and then are released, there is a possibility that this has occurred to them. The aliens do not see this as cruel. It is simply their unusual culture.

They have been abducting humans for centuries. They see the earth as a big farm and have been raising humans for their harvest. They often abduct them and take them back to their home planet to raise there as a form of animal husbandry.

Their main problem is with their cloning process. In the recloning, each copy of each copy of each copy weakens repeatedly so that they are, in effect, a dying race. This has stimulated their interest in creating a new being through genetic engineering, using human or some other source as a new genetic substance to reenergize the cloning process, or to create a merging of their own race with another.

END OF COLD WAR, REPTILIANS HEADING THIS WAY

There is much that has not been released in the Cooper information, which is generally very accurate as far as it goes. Much more will surface in the coming decade, eventually being given by people within the government.

There is now a conflict between two factions within the government agencies. One faction sees the necessity of working with the aliens to set up a One World government in which it sees itself as being the power behind the throne. The other faction sees the aliens as a threat to humanity and wishes to expose the information, let the public know and prevent the aliens from gaining control of the planet.

Those who are collaborators with the aliens do not want the information released. They are continuing the cover-up out of fear that the people would blame them, consider them traitors and hold them responsible for for all that is due to an alien presence. There was a time when these leaders realized that many humans were being sacrificed to feed the alien appetites. They had a choice of making a clean break with the aliens or at least of telling the people or of continuing the cover-up. They chose not to.

The alien threat is the single major factor in the attempt to unify and harmonize nations of the earth. The threat is not only from those who are already present on the earth in their bases, but also from craft that have been recognized as being on their way to earth.

To stop this cooperative effort, there are certain elements attempting to stir up heavy conflicts in certain areas, particularly to bring down Gorbachev and his reforms. These are being influenced by the aliens, through their agents. There are many people who have been implanted with chips over the years and they are being activated now. It doesn't appear there is sufficient energy behind the the alien endeavor at this time, however. The money supply for the aliens which has been extorted from governments and government agencies is gradually diminishing. It's being cut off and is hindering the construction and development of many of their projects and plans. This has weakened them.

There is a hidden war in progress, but one that is not highly charged. It is on a level of quiet competition between the aliens and the governments of the world. But there are certain elements of humans that are working hand in hand with the aliens trying to help regain control of the governments which the aliens once controlled.

Within Cooper's material, there is a reference to the Fatima prophecy, being that which aliens pulled out of the future. The aliens claim to have the ability see into the future and have helped bring about this apparition. Before the aliens revealed it, a longstanding theory by this government was that the unreleased third Fatima prophecy dealt with a nuclear war and its aftermath. This prophecy was kept hidden from the people.

What was not revealed, however, was that the alien situation was directly linked to this nuclear war prophecy. In truth, the aliens were hoping to contribute to instability on this earth so that nuclear war would come. It was their intention to bring about enough devastation on the earth so as to make the planet easily conquerable, while still retaining some degree of human life to serve them as slaves.

With their technologies, they can eliminate radioactive contamination.

They planned to inhabit the remains of the earth without any threat of human domination. But the scenario of the Fatima prophecies is in no way preordained. Rather, it was a timetable of the alien plans to conquer the earth. It was scheduled to begin in February 1990, but it was not written in stone. It was simply the intention of the aliens to begin then.

At that time, it was intended by the aliens that the information about them be released by the government so that humans would be prepared to accept the inevitable outcome. They had hopes of triggering the exchange of nuclear weapons -- preferably in the Middle East where people are expecting Armageddon to begin -- and then suddenly stop the escalation with their own technology. They would then pass themselves off as divine beings and bring forth the Millennium.

There are certain efforts which are being attempted at present to use the Book of Revelation to create the appearance of a coming Messiah. This timetable for the Armageddon/Second Coming scenario has been dashed recently by the lessening of the threat of nuclear war. It was at a fever pitch in the early and mid-1980s, but has since died down. The aliens have, in effect, missed that window of opportunity. The people are not now expecting a nuclear war and the Fatima timetable is of little use to the aliens. But they have not abandoned it. It has simply been shifted to begin around 1992.

The government believes, however, that the people will not accept this scenario as being true. Many have been conditioned by the Book of Revelation into believing that they will be rescued, but for the most part people will not believe it and will assume it is in fact, one of the false prophet Biblical scenarios predicted before the actual Second Coming.

There is a strong potential that during this decade the aliens and humans will clash in combat over domination of the earth. There is a potential that this could be covert, but it may become overt. The possibility of reconciliation is growing more remote as the aliens seem less ready to negotiate a situation in which coexistence can occur. It should not be ruled out, however. Pressures are now being put on the aliens which may lead to a more conciliatory stand.

This following information been deemed unsuitable for the public at this time and there have been and will be more killings to keep such information secret.

There is a threat of an invasion of 30 million or more reptilian aliens which control the Greys. There are smaller numbers of smaller ships heading this way, but nothing compared in size to the small planetoid that is heading toward this planet, which is approximately the size of the state of Pennsylvania.

It does not travel at above light speed as do other craft because it is so enormous and holds so many aliens. It passed near the planet in 1989, dropped off some reptilian aliens and headed out to the Draco constellation in early summer of 1989. The timetable for the arrival back to earth is approximately 2020, depending on what may happen near Draco. The Hubble Telescope has as its primary mission the task of tracking the return of the craft.

The base in Dulce, New Mexico now has 100,000 aliens living within it at this time. Another 100,000 more have moved through the Dulce Base to other bases. The aliens continue to enter the earth at a rate of 20,000 per month. The base at Ada, Oklahoma is still very active. The recent floods artificially created and allowed there were an attempt to slow and hinder activities there.

The aliens are attempting to move their entire planetary population from their dying planet as quickly as possible, prior to the arrival of the Draco reptilians. Presently, the assessment of those in the inner circles who are dealing with the alien invasion threat is that the Reptilians have every intention of ruling this planet. There are many who feel that the aliens have such a high technology that they cannot be defeated.

The next potential scenario in relation to the expected invasion is the release by the government of the information relating to the Grays and their earth bases, but releasing it in such a way that is favorable to the government. Claims will be made that any other version is but that of troublemakers.

If the release of information comes before 1996, and especially if it occurs prior to 1995, you can be correct in assuming it is staged by the government to set up the atmosphere for a One World government. If it is held off until 1996 or thereafter, you can assume the information released is real and that the Reptilian ship is heading this way and poses a real threat. The Draco Reptilians do not really need the earth. They have more room than they need to grow and thrive. They simply want the earth as a kind of strategic point in their battle to conquer the entire galaxy.

The Pleiadeans may return by 1993, and you would know them by their ships, which have the symbol of a serpent climbing a vine. The symbol for the Reptilians is a dragon. The Grey's symbol is a cobra. There is also a potential for martial law occurring in this country, in which many of those troublemakers, who hold to the story that the government was involved with the aliens in the abduction of humans, would be rounded up and imprisoned along with many who have been implanted because of potential threats to this country's security. People who are releasing this information are not fully out of danger just because many people know about it. You may recall that in China, just about everyone knew what occurred in Tiananmen Square, and yet today, you will not find anyone in China who will talk about it. There is now an open window in which people can talk, spread the word, discuss it, show the videos and photographs. The more that occurs now, before a martial law crackdown, the more chance there is of having the truth come out.

Once that window is closed, if enough people are not already informed, the information could still be curtailed and hidden. At present, only 2 to 3 percent of the United States population has half of the story and only one half percent has the full story.
